INTER-RELIGIOUS DIALOGUE ON ECOLOGY

On February 11 at 7 p.m., join online for a lecture with Pope Francis's teaching on the care for the Earth and explore how the papal teaching can find support in Asian religions, especially Daoism and Buddhism. It will conclude with reflections on how this interreligious dialogue can be a source of inspiration for our common work for ecojustice. Visit <http://bit.ly/ScarboroMissionsWebsite> for details or email fraser.centre@utoronto.ca

FROM OUR PASTOR: Philosophy of Life!

Today's Gospel draws our attention to the darker side of life. A man with unclean spirit, who fears to give up his way. "What do you want Jesus?" He answered – a new way.

A parishioner once asked me about my Philosophy of Life! I was taken aback. It made me think what my philosophy is, of life? What is important? Where do I stand? What are the guiding principles?

There was a great movie, quite old like me: called "The Bucket List" with Jack Nicholson and Morgan Freeman. They are both terminally ill and escaped from hospital. They travel, trying to fulfill their dream destinations, discussing odd subject matters, and visiting exotic places. Suddenly, sitting on some ruins in Cairo viewing the pyramids and enjoying views, discussing some relevant matter, Morgan asked Jack a serious question:

Have you found joy in your life?
Has your life brought joy to others?

That could be part of the philosophy of life. If you could answer these affirmatively, it would be a great blessing.

What do you want from us Jesus? A New way! . Here are my 3 points for the week...

- Life is a journey, an adventure to enrich, to enjoy, to make difference, to leave something behind.
- Use your brain, willpower. Gain insight and understand to the point where it alters the state of being. Always keeping God in focus.
- Relationships are paramount and most important part of your life.

To make a difference in someone's life you do not have to be brilliant, or rich, or beautiful, or perfect - You Just Have to Care!

How about that for the philosophy of life!!!

May God Bless you all,

Msgr. Vid Vlasic
