THE FIFTH WORLD DAY OF THE POOR

Sunday, November 14, 2021

An excerpt from the message of His Holiness Pope Francis.

1. "The poor you will always have with you" (Mk 14:7). Jesus spoke these words at a meal in Bethany, in the home of a certain Simon, known as the leper, a few days before Passover. As the Evangelist recounts, a woman came in with an alabaster flask full of precious ointment and poured it over Jesus' head. This caused great amazement and gave rise to two different interpretations.

2. This powerful "empathy" established between Jesus and the woman, and his own interpretation of her anointing as opposed to the scandalized view of Judas and others, can lead to a fruitful reflection on the inseparable link between Jesus, the poor and the proclamation of the Gospel.

3. Jesus not only sides with the poor; he also shares their lot. This is a powerful lesson for his disciples in every age. This is the meaning of his observation that "the poor you will always have with you". The poor will always be with us, yet that should not make us indifferent, but summon us instead to a mutual sharing of life that does not allow proxies.

4. We need, then, wholeheartedly to follow the Lord's invitation to "repent and believe in the Gospel" (Mk 1:15).

5. Christ's Gospel summons us to display special concern for the poor and to recognize the varied and excessive forms of moral and social disorder that are generating ever new forms of poverty.

6. Nonetheless, one question, which is by no means obvious, remains. How can we give a tangible response to the millions of the poor who frequently encounter only indifference, if not resentment?

7. For this reason, a different approach to poverty is required.

8. "The poor you will always have with you" (Mk 14:7). This is a summons never to lose sight of every opportunity to do good.

9. It is crucial that we grow in our awareness of the needs of the poor, which are always changing, as are their living conditions.
