EPHPHATHA!
Excerpt from Stewardship
Reflections

In the Gospel today, Jesus encounters a deaf man who is brought to Jesus to be healed of his impairment. The deaf man didn’t come on his own initiative, but rather was brought by the people who begged Jesus to lay his hands on this man and heal him.

This selfless action of the people, who didn’t seek healing for themselves or for some favour to be granted to them, but instead sought the healing of the deaf man is a beautiful example of the power of intercessory prayer. The deaf man was healed not because of his faith or desire, but of the faith and desire of those who brought him to Jesus.

As the prophet Isaiah declared in the first reading, “Be strong, fear not! Here is your God, he comes with vindication; with divine recompense he comes to save you.” Christ came to bring healing, comfort, and forgiveness. Jesus desires to speak those healing words we hear in today’s Gospel to everyone, ‘be opened!’, yet many people, including ourselves are not able to hear it because of our spiritual deafness. We may not even realize that we need the healing, after being so caught up in our own spiritual deafness. When people are unable to come to Jesus because they feel unworthy, or maybe don’t know that Jesus loves them, our intercessory prayer becomes crucial as we bring before the Lord the people who need Jesus’ healing touch and love.

As stewards, we are responsible for bringing people to Christ through our prayers and work of evangelization. Stewards understand that they have received many gifts from the Lord and wish to share that with others so that those around them can also partake in God’s blessings.

In what ways do we bring people to Christ so that Christ can bestow his blessings. Do we participate in the missionary action of the Church? Do we welcome new parishioners? Do we pray often for the needs of the people around us? Even if we are unable to bring people physically to church, let us make a greater effort to spend more time in prayer, praying for those we know if our lives who requires Christ’s healing.

FORMED PICK

Mother Teresa: Seeing the Face of Jesus

Whatever you do unto the least of these, you do unto me. Mother Teresa always remembered these words of Jesus. She said that she saw the face of Jesus in the face of each sick and dying person she helped. She asked the whole world to look for Jesus' face there, too. This movie presents the life and work of Mother Teresa with words and pictures that even the youngest child will enjoy. Children will happily learn that Mother Teresa was a person whose strong faith and trust in God helped her to make incredible changes in our world.
