STEWARDSHIP BULLETIN REFLECTIONS
Using Our Gifts of Discipleship

In the readings this Sunday (Isaiah 6.1-2a, 3-8; 1 Cor. 15.1-11; Luke 5.1-11) we are invited to reflect on the call to discipleship that we all receive as Christians. Just as Jesus called His first disciples to closely follow Him, so too are we called to follow Him in an ever deeper way through our commitment to stewardship.

In the Gospel today (Luke 5.1-11) we see Jesus getting into Peter's fishing boat so that He could preach to the vast crowds that had come to see Him. Jesus used Peter's possessions to help with His ministry. Peter, like a good disciple, obeyed and cooperated with Jesus' request and Jesus was able to further spread the Good News to those who had gathered around Him.

So too in our lives of stewardship, are we allowing Jesus to use the gifts we possess, namely our time and talents, so that others can come to know the Gospel? We can offer our time to Christ through our commitment to daily prayer. We can also use our time to journey with and support our fellow parishioners, especially those who are going through a time of difficulty. With respect to our talents, we can reflect on our particular gifts and offer them to the appropriate ministries in the parish. For example, if we have the gift of music, perhaps we can look into joining a choir or if we have a background in teaching, perhaps various catechetical ministries in the parish. There are many ways in which God can use us to serve Him. Let us echo the words of the prophet Isaiah in the first reading and boldly say to God, "Here am I; send me!"

A PRAYER FOR MARRIAGE SUNDAY
Sunday, February 9, 2025

Thank you, Lord,
for the love You implanted in our hearts.
May the love You taught us
inspire us always to be kind in our words,
considerate to each other's feelings,
and towards caring for each other's needs, dreams and wishes.
Help and guide us in forgiving our downfalls
that arise due to human weakness and failings.
Help us grow in faith with You,
trust each other as we trust in You.
Bless our marriage, O Lord,
with peace, togetherness and happiness,
and make this bond fruitful and everlasting
as You intended it to be.
May this marriage be a witness
of Your glory and love. Amen.
